Areas of Service

Armed Forces, Active Duty: The Archdiocese for the Military Services is responsible for the pastoral care of the Catholic men and women who serve on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces. It is also responsible for the dependents of these persons. Included also are the cadets and resident personnel of the three military academies (West Point--the U.S. Military Academy, the U.S. Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis) and the U.S. Coast Guard Academy at New London. Pastoral care is provided by priest-chaplains on loan from their dioceses or religious communities to serve as chaplains for the Military and Department of Veterans Affairs. Members of the Marines and Coast Guard are served by Navy Chaplains; Armed Forces, Reserves, National Guard: In addition to the personnel on active duty in the Armed Forces, there is a considerable reserve component. Some of these personnel serve a number of days each year on active duty with a branch of the service; some serve on extended tours of active duty; all are subject to recall to active duty in a national emergency. In addition to the reserve components of the Army, Air Force, Navy and Coast Guard, there are also the Air National Guard and the Army National Guard, which are organized on a state-by-state basis; Department of Veterans Affairs: The Archdiocese for the Military Services is responsible for the spiritual care of Catholics at V.A. medical facilities. Chaplaincy services are provided by full- and part-time priests, many of whom are retired military chaplains; U.S. Government Civilian Employees Abroad: U.S. citizens in government service abroad (and their family members living with them) are subjects of the Archdiocese for the Military Services; Civil Air Patrol: The Civil Air Patrol, as an auxiliary of the Air Force, is under the jurisdiction of the Archdiocese for the Military Services. The jurisdiction applies to its chaplains and members only when participating in exercises on a military installation

Because your church is not just a building ...

Three considerations before beginning any church building or renovation project:

- Church design always begins from the inside
- Appropriate planning for the celebration of the Sacraments and Seasons of the Liturgical year drive the interior design
- Interior liturgical design then influences the exterior architecture
